MEMBERS' FORUM

Message from Mark White, President, Hawaii Craftsmen

Hello Fellow Artists,

The fall season begins and Hawaii craftsmen is off and running with one of its most important programs coming up-the Annual Statewide Juried Exhibit! Intake day and jury on Oahu by Art Director Stephano Catalani is Sunday, October 6th. You can register to submit your work as well as sign up on line to volunteer to help this busy day ahead of our show. Visit our website for each island's schedule and let us know how and where you can help.

Looking ahead to the future we have some fantastic events to look forward to. In February we are setting up another Formable Feast fundraiser and then in March another set of exciting workshops with Aha Hana Lima 2014. We are building another series of three, maybe four, inspiring artists in our lineup to pass on some unique techniques and experiences for our members.

Thanks for all you do and see you at the Annual show.

Mark

Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program

Give Aloha, Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program is coming up! This program was created in 1999 to honor Foodland's founder, Maurice J. "Sully" Sullivan, and continue his legacy of giving back to the community. Each year, during Sept. 1-30 at all Foodland and Sack N Save stores statewide, customers are encouraged to make a donation at checkout to their favorite Hawaii non-profit organization. Since the program began in 1999, a grand total of more than $19 million has been raised for Hawaii's charities.

During September, Maika'i members are invited to make donations up to $249 to their favorite participating Hawaii non-profit organizations at checkout. Donations to each organization are tracked, and Foodland's matching gift is divided proportionately among all participating organizations based on customer donations to the organizations. Please consider donating to Hawaii Craftsmen during this program. HC's number is 77341.

Hawaii Public Radio On-Air Fund Drive

It's the fall fund drive for Hawaii Public Radio! Hawaii Craftsmen will take a shift on the phone bank on Saturday October 19th, 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. during a special edition of "Wait, Wait Don't Tell Me", the brilliantly funny news quiz show. Volunteers will cheerily answer phones and take pledges from other nice, smart people who listen to public radio and get a look inside this thriving operation. We need at least eight people. If you can pitch in please e-mail Esther Shimazu at ECshimazu@hawaii.rr.com. For more info click here.

ISLAND NEWS

OAHU

2013 Hawaii's Woodshow™

September 1-15, 2013

Honolulu Museum of Art School Gallery at Linekona

Hawaii's Woodshow™, Na La'au O Hawai'i is Hawai'i Forest Industry Association's (HFIA) annual juried woodworking exhibition of extraordinary heirloom-quality works made from beautiful Hawai'i-grown woods. Hawaii's Woodshow encourages an appreciation for the participating artists and the materials they use and promotes the positive role forests play in our economy and ecology. The Show calls for the use of wood from Hawaiian-grown tree species that have been planted and brought to maturity here in Hawai'i. It serves as a reference point for the planting of native and non-native high value hardwoods for future generations.
